POTLUCK DINNER

Committee Report

– October Harvest Pot Luck Dinner and Crazy Whist was a huge success thanks to Phyllis and Paul Bushlow and Frank and Kathy McIntosh.. Ralph Krau and Ann Reeves managed the kitchen making this for a wonderful, fun evening. A huge thank you to all for attending as well and bringing such delicious food.

The group brochure is still in the works. The new logo designed by Paul Bushlow will be digitized in color. We are looking for photos and someone to coordinate the photos. If you are interested, please let Joanne or Michael O'Connell know.

We are looking for someone to fill the Vice Presidency vacancy that has been open for a while now. Please start thinking about who would be a good candidate. Who knows, it could be you!! We would love to have you. Nominations have to be made at the March meeting according to our by-laws. We will also need membership committee coordinators. The following slate of officers are: Co-Presidents –Joanne and Michael O'Connell, Vice President – vacant – Secretary, Bette Silva and Treasurer – Sue Powers.

There will be a cribbage night hosted by Muriel Glantz & Linda Billman - November 28th at 7:00 PM at Muriel's home.

Inside Town Government – January 30, 2018. A good way to find out how the inner workings of town government works. For more information, contact Town Manager's office.

Dine out dinner will be on April 11th at Alberto's Ristorante. More information will be put in the Winter Bulletin which will be out in January.
