

BARNSTABLE NEWCOMERS November 14, 2019

A hospitable gathering was held before the regular meeting commenced at 7:20 PM.

by Co-Presidents Joanne and Michael O’Connell. It was noted that November was the last meeting of the year until the next one in March. A request was made of members to begin thinking about new officers for the next club year. The Co-presidents continued by stating that they want to see the club continue to meet the needs of all. They want to see it move forward and flourish. The members are reminded that nominations are due in March with new officers who will come in with new ideas. Members brought a canned good to be donated to needy veterans.

Minutes from October Meeting - It was moved and seconded to accept minutes as presented. All in favor.

Tim Gigi, Historian for the Whydah Pirate Museum made a very interesting presentation on the history of the Whydah and how it has developed through present day.

See you in 2019.

Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a joyous, healthy New Year

Respectfully Submitted
